IFM - In Flight Meal

Day 1 - February 22, 2026

The journey begins with an overnight flight from North America to Egypt. (IFM)

Day 2 - February 23, 2026

Upon arrival in Cairo, you'll be greeted by a local guide who will assist with customs before transferring to your 4-star hotel on the west side of the city. (IFM, D)

Day 3 - February 24, 2026

Explore the ancient burial site of Sakkara, home to Egypt's oldest pyramids and beautifully preserved tombs with scenes of pharaonic agriculture.

Visit a family-owned farm, operating since the 1880s, known for its experimental crops, including endive, a vegetable that thrives in northern Europe's low temperatures.

Day 4 - February 25, 2026

Depart Cairo via the Alexandria Desert Road to visit one of Egypt's largest export farms, spanning 3,000 acres and cultivating a variety of fruits and vegetables.

After a light lunch at the farm, continue into the desert, arriving at the Faiyum oasis in the early afternoon. Check into a former hunting castle of King Farouk, overlooking the brackish Qarun Lake. (B, L, D)

Day 5 - February 26, 2026

After checking out, board 4x4s for a scenic drive along Qarun Lake, passing fields of flowers and crops before heading into the desert and the remote Valley of Whales. Walk among ancient whale skeletons, and enjoy light dune bashing with Bedouin guides.

Back at the oasis, have lunch at the Faiyumi cooking school, visit the village's famous pottery workshops, then return to Giza to check into your hotel. (B, L)

Day 6 - February 27, 2026

Visit to the Gayer Anderson Museum, a 15th-century home showcasing art, furnishings, and carpets from its former owner.

Next, explore the magnificent El Rifai Mosque, the burial site of King Farouk and the last Shah of Iran.

Stroll through the bustling Khan El Khalili bazaar, followed by lunch with views of Cairo's 1,000 minarets from Al Azhar Park. (B, L)

Day 7 - February 28, 2026

Check out of your Cairo hotel and visit the legendary Giza Pyramids, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. From the Plateau's highest point, enjoy panoramic views with the option to enter a smaller pyramid.

After lunch overlooking the nine pyramids, transfer to the airport for your flight to Aswan, where you'll be met and taken to your hotel on the Nile. (B, L)

Day 8 - March 1, 2026

Start the day with free time to take in Aswan's stunning views or take an optional flight to Abu Simbel, famed for its colossal statues of Ramses II and its remarkable relocation in the 1960s. (additional cost applies, contact office for more information)

In the afternoon, visit Mohamed, an elderly Nubian man who founded a small museum to preserve Nubian heritage. He or his daughter, Fatima, will guide you through the village, sharing insights into their history and traditions.

End the day with a boat ride to the legendary Old Cataract Hotel for a classic high tea on the terrace, just as Agatha Christie once did. (B, High Tea)

Day 9 - March 2, 2026

Check out of your Aswan hotel and board your Nile cruise ship, where you'll enjoy lunch onboard.

Your first stop is the Aswan High Dam, a modern engineering marvel that transformed life in the Nile Valley. Then, visit Philae Temple, an island sanctuary dedicated to the goddess Isis.

End the tour at the granite quarry to see the unfinished obelisk, a fascinating testament to ancient craftsmanship. (B, L, D)

Day 10 - March 3, 2026

Begin with an early morning visit to Kom Ombo Temple, followed by the remarkably well-preserved Edfu Temple later in the day.

As the cruise continues north through the Esna Dam and lock, relax on the sundeck and take in the stunning contrast of lush Nile Valley fields against the surrounding desert. (B, L, Afternoon Tea, D)

Day 11 - March 4, 2026

Explore the famous Karnak Temple, the "Vatican of the Pharaonic Era", with its towering gates, grand halls, and intricate carvings.

The afternoon is yours to enjoy at leisure. (B, L, D)

Important Information

At Target Tours, we want to ensure your travel journey remains pleasurable and simplified. Please read over the following policies. If you have any questions, please contact our office!

Booking & Cancellation

All reservations require a booking deposit to secure the seat. Deposits are non-refundable. Once the final payment is made, the tour becomes fully non-refundable. We recommend purchase of Travel Protection to protect your investment. Please see protection details below. For international tours, if you do not purchase travel protection from us, you are required to provide proof that you have alternate travel insurance.

Travel Protection

Your tour price does not include travel protection. If you are covered, we advise you to look into coverage details, if there is a deductible, if you need to pay up front, and where to call for help. We highly recommend medical, trip cancellation and trip interruption coverage. If you would like a quote, please call our office at 1-877-214-5367.

Health Requirement

All tour participants must affirm that they are in good health, sufficient to participate fully in the tour and its activities. If you have any conditions or limitations that require you to have additional assistance while on tour, it is essential that you disclose these to Target Tours at the time of your reservation.

Requirement for Assistance

Travelers who require personal assistance for daily activities, mobility, or other needs must be accompanied by a capable and willing care companion who will be fully responsible for providing such assistance throughout the tour. This responsibility does not fall on Target Tours, its Tour Directors, hosts, local guides, or other personnel.
